

27 Multiple choice questions

1. supernatural; beyond that which is real or physical
  - a. CORRECT: metaphysical
  - b. Methodists
  - c. Vatican
  - d. xenophobia

2. the speaking of a prophet; the foretelling of future events
  - a. pantheism
  - b. polytheism
  - c. xenophobia
  - d. CORRECT: prophesying

3. an ancient polytheist
  - a. parish
  - b. Vatican
  - c. totem
  - d. CORRECT: pagan

4. a belief system that rejects religion, or the belief that religion should not be part of the affairs of the state or part of public education
  - a. parish
  - b. CORRECT: secularism
  - c. pluralism
  - d. sectarian

5. a denomination formed in the 1970s joining the Congregational, Methodist and Presbyterian churches
  - a. CORRECT: Uniting Church
  - b. mysticism
  - c. Vatican
  - d. nominal

6. the referral of political questions to the electorate
  - a. pantheism
  - b. CORRECT: referendum
  - c. secularism
  - d. trinity

7. a narrow and excessive allegiance to a particular religious group
  - a. secularism
  - b. parish
  - c. Vatican
  - d. CORRECT: sectarian

8. the blending of religious or other beliefs
  - a. CORRECT: syncretisation
  - b. sectarian
  - c. reconciliation
  - d. reincarnation

9. the process of restoring friendly relations
  - a. syncretisation
  - b. CORRECT: reconciliation
  - c. secularism
  - d. reincarnation

10. a natural object, especially an animal or bird, used as an emblem of a clan or individual
  - a. pantheism
  - b. CORRECT: totem
  - c. pagan
  - d. synod

11. the local administrative unit, with church and ordained minister, made up of one or more congregations and having fixed geographical boundaries
  - a. pagan
  - b. pantheism
  - c. pluralism
  - d. CORRECT: parish

12. the acceptance that more than one faith has validity
  - a. secularism
  - b. parish
  - c. polytheism
  - d. CORRECT: pluralism

13. the Christian understanding of God as Three in One: Father, Son and Holy Spirit
  - a. CORRECT: trinity
  - b. totem
  - c. synod
  - d. nominal

14. an aboriginal word for the 'dreaming'
  - a. trinity
  - b. sectarian
  - c. CORRECT: tjukurrba
  - d. theologian

15. the smallest independent state in the world, where the Pope and Roman Catholic Church authorities are based
  - a. parish
  - b. nominal
  - c. CORRECT: Vatican
  - d. pagan

16. the view that God is present in everything and everything is God
- CORRECT: pantheism
  - parish
  - polytheism
  - pluralism
17. a British law claiming that empty land may be lawfully settled and colonised by the Crown
- CORRECT: terra nullius
  - secularism
  - pluralism
  - trinity
18. an official gathering of Christian clergy who meet and discuss church affairs and policies
- trinity
  - CORRECT: synod
  - pagan
  - totem
19. in name only; not real or actual
- Vatican
  - trinity
  - CORRECT: nominal
  - synod
20. a deep-seated fear of strangers and people that are 'different' or foreign
- metaphysical
  - theologian
  - nominal
  - CORRECT: xenophobia
21. a non-conformist Scottish denomination who believe that presbyters or elders should lead each church
- sectarian
  - CORRECT: Presbyterians
  - prophesying
  - polytheism

22. the belief that there are many gods
- pantheism
  - pluralism
  - CORRECT: polytheism
  - totem
23. the search for an experience of oneness with the supreme being
- pluralism
  - CORRECT: mysticism
  - polytheism
  - pantheism
24. a person skilled in the study of religion
- xenophobia
  - sectarian
  - pagan
  - CORRECT: theologian
25. the belief that the soul of a person can be reborn into another lifetime
- CORRECT: reincarnation
  - syncretisation
  - sectarian
  - reconciliation
26. a protestant denomination that came into being through the preachings of John and Charles Wesley and George Whitefield in the 1700s
- pantheism
  - metaphysical
  - mysticism
  - CORRECT: Methodists

27. the largest and oldest branch of Christianity; the Church of Rome
- a. reincarnation
  - b. pantheism
  - c. CORRECT: Roman Catholic
  - d. nominal