

23 Multiple choice questions

A+
100%

1. an entitlement that a person has within his or her own country
 - a. CORRECT: domestic right
 - b. collective rights
 - c. human rights
 - d. economic rights

2. an order which restricts the movements and communications of people within Australia
 - a. bonded labour
 - b. civil rights
 - c. CORRECT: control order
 - d. cultural rights

3. a characteristic of human rights which means they cannot be given up or taken away
 - a. inherent
 - b. democracy
 - c. CORRECT: inalienable
 - d. indivisible

4. a document which sets out the basic rights to which every human should be entitled
 - a. CORRECT: charter of rights
 - b. human rights
 - c. cultural rights
 - d. civil rights

5. people who seek asylum in another country for economic reasons, not because they fear persecution
 - a. economic rights
 - b. CORRECT: economic migrants
 - c. domestic right
 - d. civil rights

6. an organisation comprised of several sovereign states working for a common cause
 - a. environmental rights
 - b. CORRECT: intergovernmental organisation
 - c. deportation
 - d. international right

7. entitlements that do not belong to an individual, but to a group of people, such as the continued survival of a race of people
 - a. cultural rights
 - b. economic rights
 - c. domestic right
 - d. CORRECT: collective rights

8. a document that is part of the constitution of a country, which sets out the basic rights to which every human should be entitled
 - a. charter of rights
 - b. international right
 - c. CORRECT: entrenched charter of rights
 - d. environmental rights

9. not having the right to vote
 - a. deportation
 - b. CORRECT: disenfranchised
 - c. democracy
 - d. human rights

10. an entitlement recognised as being a fundamental right of all people across the world
 - a. CORRECT: international right
 - b. domestic right
 - c. environmental rights
 - d. cultural rights

11. the entitlement to a clean, healthy and sustainable environment
 - a. domestic right
 - b. CORRECT: environmental rights
 - c. civil rights
 - d. international right

12. entitlements to assist in preserving and enjoying one's cultural heritage
 - a. charter of rights
 - b. human rights
 - c. CORRECT: cultural rights
 - d. civil rights

13. a system of government in which lawmaking authority is given to representatives elected by the whole adult population
 - a. human rights
 - b. deportation
 - c. inherent
 - d. CORRECT: democracy

14. a characteristic of human rights which means that all human rights are equally important
 - a. democracy
 - b. inherent
 - c. inalienable
 - d. CORRECT: indivisible

15. a person who seeks refugee status
 - a. CORRECT: asylum seeker
 - b. control order
 - c. inalienable
 - d. indivisible

16. forcibly removing a person from the country
- inherent
 - CORRECT: deportation
 - abolitionist
 - democracy
17. people who are forced to work for an indefinite period in order to pay off a debt
- indivisible
 - control order
 - inalienable
 - CORRECT: bonded labour
18. entitlements belonging to all humans to do with being a free citizen of a nation, such as freedom of thought and religion
- CORRECT: civil rights
 - human rights
 - cultural rights
 - economic rights
19. a characteristic of human rights which means they are the birthright of all humans
- democracy
 - indivisible
 - CORRECT: inherent
 - inalienable
20. the distribution of power between the federal and state governments
- control order
 - CORRECT: division of power
 - civil rights
 - indivisible

21. fundamental rights to which all people are entitled simply because they are human
- cultural rights
 - CORRECT: human rights
 - economic rights
 - civil rights
22. entitlements concerned with the production, development and management of material for the necessities of life
- economic migrants
 - human rights
 - civil rights
 - CORRECT: economic rights
23. a person who fights to end slavery
- indivisible
 - domestic right
 - CORRECT: abolitionist
 - deportation