

20 Multiple choice questions

A+
100%

1. long fibres; when spun, they are more uniform in length, smoother and are more compact than wool
  - a. woollen yarn
  - b. Watt wash
  - c. CORRECT: worsted yarn
  - d. yarn

2. a belt worn around the waist to make the wearer's waist physically smaller; sometimes referred to as a waist cincher
  - a. wadding
  - b. wale
  - c. warp
  - d. CORRECT: waspie

3. assisting understanding of a concept via text
  - a. weft knitting
  - b. verbal communication
  - c. CORRECT: written communication
  - d. worsted yarn

4. short staple wool fibres that are not always uniform in length; they are less parallel, softer and looser than worsted yarn
  - a. CORRECT: woollen yarn
  - b. yarn
  - c. wool
  - d. worsted yarn

5. yarns running the length of a fabric
  - a. waspie
  - b. CORRECT: warp
  - c. wale
  - d. yarn

6. a unique technique to distress denim, using a laser to fade the colour and much less water than traditional distressing methods
  - a. CORRECT: Watt wash
  - b. wale
  - c. warp
  - d. weft

7. fabrics manufactured from non-woven sources
  - a. wale
  - b. waspie
  - c. CORRECT: washable webs
  - d. Watt wash

8. a vertical row of loops in a knitted fabric
  - a. wool
  - b. value
  - c. warp
  - d. CORRECT: wale

9. the basic thread component of all fabric construction; have a continuous length but a small cross-section and are usually held together by twisting or spinning
  - a. warp
  - b. wale
  - c. weft
  - d. CORRECT: yarn

10. garments more than 25 years old
  - a. wadding
  - b. CORRECT: vintage clothing
  - c. weft knitting
  - d. warp knitting

11. a technique that uses one yarn per needle or wale, and the loops run the length of the fabric; each row of loops interlocks with the adjacent row or wale
- warp
  - wadding
  - weft knitting
  - CORRECT: warp knitting
12. yarns running across the width of a fabric
- wool
  - wale
  - CORRECT: weft
  - warp
13. a natural bicomponent fibre taken from the fleece of domesticated sheep, but can also come from other animals, such as alpaca, Angora and Kashmir goats, camel, llama and vicuna
- wale
  - weft
  - CORRECT: wool
  - warp
14. the light or darkness of a colour, which can add depth and volume to a design
- yarn
  - CORRECT: value
  - waspie
  - wale
15. a loose fitting garment that has a neckline, armholes, sleeves or sleeveless, and a hemline that traditionally falls below the knee
- unity
  - warp
  - CORRECT: tunic
  - wool

16. a technique that uses one length of yarn, and the loops are formed along the width of the fabric; each row of loops interlocks with the row above and below, holding the fabric together
- wadding
  - weft
  - CORRECT: weft knitting
  - warp knitting
17. a textile material usually sewn in between two layers of fabric to add bulk and insulation to a textile item; can be made of cotton, polyester, wool or bamboo
- yarn
  - CORRECT: wadding
  - waspie
  - wale
18. a composition that has a completeness of design
- tunic
  - weft
  - CORRECT: unity
  - warp
19. assisting understanding of a concept via speech
- weft knitting
  - CORRECT: verbal communication
  - written communication
  - warp knitting
20. nylon or metal teeth that are attached to fabric tapes; there are three types: conventional, open-ended and invisible
- warp
  - wale
  - value
  - CORRECT: zipper