

1. Ethics and Stewardship Responsibility 1	individuals have the responsibility to not harm the environment and to replace or fix what they damage or destroy	16. Renewable and Non-renewable Resource Management Right 4	governments have the right to manage their own resources based on national needs
2. Ethics and Stewardship Responsibility 2	communities have the responsibility to not overuse resources	17. Sustainable Resources Responsibility 1	individuals have the responsibility to plan for the future and to promote a healthy environmental atmosphere
3. Ethics and Stewardship Responsibility 3	businesses have the responsibility to not use more resources than is necessary	18. Sustainable Resources Responsibility 2	communities have the responsibility to sustain and improve their environment
4. Ethics and Stewardship Responsibility 4	governments have the responsibility to protect our environment	19. Sustainable Resources Responsibility 3	businesses have the responsibility to pursue environmentally-friendly conduct
5. Ethics and Stewardship Right 1	individuals have the right to preserve nature and enjoy biodiversity	20. Sustainable Resources Responsibility 4	governments have the responsibility to respect the opinions of the community, provide resources and to implement laws, regulations and incentives that promote best management practices
6. Ethics and Stewardship Right 2	communities have the right to be educated in order to preserve nature	21. Sustainable Resources Right 1	individuals have the right to use environmental resources and to protect the ecosystem and their health
7. Ethics and Stewardship Right 3	businesses have the right to use nature to make a profit	22. Sustainable Resources Right 2	communities have the right to access clean air, water and land
8. Ethics and Stewardship Right 4	governments have the right to make regulations concerning clear water, air and land	23. Sustainable Resources Right 3	businesses have the right to be economically viable
9. Renewable and Non-renewable Resource Management Responsibility 1	individuals have the responsibility to not waste valuable resources	24. Sustainable Resources Right 4	governments have the right to choose the best way of using natural resources in a manner that is healthy for the community and the environment
10. Renewable and Non-renewable Resource Management Responsibility 2	communities have the responsibility to be informed about the environment and participate, including recycling	25. Water Responsibility 1	individuals have the responsibility to use water efficiently and to avoid polluting it
11. Renewable and Non-renewable Resource Management Responsibility 3	businesses have the responsibility to minimise pollution and waste of natural resources	26. Water Responsibility 2	communities have the responsibility to educate themselves and to report problems with water usage
12. Renewable and Non-renewable Resource Management Responsibility 4	governments have the responsibility to use and encourage the use of sustainable resources	27. Water Responsibility 3	businesses have the responsibility to invest in better practices regarding water consumption
13. Renewable and Non-renewable Resource Management Right 1	individuals have the right to environmental education to be aware of the importance of recycling	28. Water Responsibility 4	governments have the responsibility to hold individuals, communities and businesses accountable for their actions
14. Renewable and Non-renewable Resource Management Right 2	communities have the right to be informed about their environment and to access recycling facilities	29. Water Right 1	individuals have the right to access clean water now and in the future
15. Renewable and Non-renewable Resource Management Right 3	businesses have the right to decide about the type of resources they use, how they use them and their environmental plans

30. Water Right 2 communities have the right to environmental education and clean accessible water supplies

31. Water Right 3 businesses have the right to use the water they need and to invest in environmental issues

32. Water Right 4 governments have the right to make laws to protect water for human and non-human use
