

17 Multiple choice questions

1. a penalty imposed on those who break the law, usually in the form of a fine or punishment
 - a. warning
 - b. sanction
 - c. guarantor
 - d. caution

2. a court order that establishes a new legal relationship between potential adoptive parents and child eligible for adoption; it also severs the legal relationship that existed between the adoptive child and his or her natural or legally recognised parents or guardians prior to the adoption process
 - a. sanction
 - b. adoption order
 - c. caution
 - d. doli incapax

3. meetings of all the people who may be affected by crime committed by a young offender; used to help them to accept responsibility for their actions while avoiding the court system
 - a. youth justice conferences
 - b. public space
 - c. summary offences
 - d. indictable offences

4. a latin term meaning 'incapable of wrong'; the presumption that a child under 10 years of age cannot be held legally responsible for his or her actions and cannot be guilty of a criminal or civil offence
 - a. warning
 - b. doli incapax
 - c. sanction
 - d. foundling

5. a formal notice given to a younger offender, usually for a first minor offence
 - a. caution
 - b. foundling
 - c. torts
 - d. warning

6. the physical punishment of people, especially of children, by hitting them
 - a. warning
 - b. corporal punishment
 - c. children
 - d. caution

7. a person prohibited from working in a child-related employment because of a conviction of a serious sex offence, murder of a child, or an offence involving violence toward a child
 - a. doli incapax
 - b. adoption order
 - c. prohibited person
 - d. children

8. a child or young person, generally under 18 years of age, although this may vary depending on the context
 - a. juvenile
 - b. warning
 - c. guarantor
 - d. sanction

9. a person who gives a formal promise that someone else's contract will be fulfilled, often backed by some form of asset that will stand as collateral to secure the promise
 - a. warning
 - b. juvenile
 - c. guarantor
 - d. torts

10. generally persons aged 15 years and younger, depending on the legal context
 - a. torts
 - b. caution
 - c. children
 - d. foundling

11. a check by the NSW Commission for Children and Young People on the appropriateness of a person in NSW to work in child-related employment
 - a. working with children check
 - b. youth justice conferences
 - c. indictable offences
 - d. children

12. serious criminal offences that require an indictment (a formal, written charge) and a preliminary hearing; they are typically tried before a judge and jury and are subject to a greater penalty
 - a. adoption order
 - b. indictable offences
 - c. summary offences
 - d. sanction

13. a deserted infant whose parents identity is unknown
 - a. children
 - b. sanction
 - c. foundling
 - d. warning

14. a formal notice given to a young offender where the offence is more serious than one appropriately dealt with by a warning
 - a. caution
 - b. children
 - c. sanction
 - d. warning

15. civil wrongs involving breach of duty, torts include negligence, defamation, nuisance and trespass to the person, goods or land
 - a. warning
 - b. caution
 - c. torts
 - d. guarantor

16. criminal offences that can be dealt with by a single judge without a jury and do not require a preliminary hearing
 - a. summary offences
 - b. guarantor
 - c. public space
 - d. indictable offences

17. areas set aside in which members of the community can associate and assemble
 - a. foundling
 - b. doli incapax
 - c. public space
 - d. juvenile