

14 Multiple choice questions

A+
100%

1. an Afrikaans word meaning 'separateness'; refers to the South African governments' policy from the 1990s of separating white and black people and discriminating between them in provision of facilities
  - a. veld
  - b. CORRECT: apartheid
  - c. Africans
  - d. racism

2. a person or government who desires to acquire and administer an area of land so as to benefit from its resources
  - a. CORRECT: imperialist
  - b. Africans
  - c. apartheid
  - d. racism

3. an Afrikaner term meaning 'foreigners'; Boer farmers used the term to describe the miners and prospectors who came searching for gold in the areas in and around southern Transvaal
  - a. Afrikaners
  - b. CORRECT: Uitlanders
  - c. Witwatersrand
  - d. Boers

4. (or 'the Rand') area of gold mining towns from Heidelberg in the east to Krugersdorp and Randfontein in the west
  - a. apartheid
  - b. Africans
  - c. Uitlanders
  - d. CORRECT: Witwatersrand

5. a term to describe countries that had a degree of control over their own affairs while still owing allegiance to the British Empire; Canada became the first dominion in 1867; South Africa attained dominion status in 1910
  - a. CORRECT: dominion
  - b. colony
  - c. constitution
  - d. Boers

6. South Africans, usually of Dutch (but also German and French) descent
  - a. colony
  - b. veld
  - c. racism
  - d. CORRECT: Boers

7. a fortified structure with small openings from which to fire on enemy troops
  - a. racism
  - b. Boers
  - c. colony
  - d. CORRECT: blockhouse

8. a method of warfare in which small groups engage in surprise attacks on enemy facilities, troops and supply routes
  - a. Africans
  - b. Uitlanders
  - c. CORRECT: guerrilla warfare
  - d. Afrikaners

9. a term used to refer to the black peoples of the African continent
  - a. apartheid
  - b. CORRECT: Africans
  - c. Afrikaners
  - d. racism

10. the rules (usually written) that set out how a state will be organised and the nature and limits of the government's powers within it
  - a. CORRECT: constitution
  - b. dominion
  - c. colony
  - d. imperialist

11. Afrikaans word for large areas of grasslands with few trees ( from the Dutch veldt meaning field)
  - a. Boers
  - b. racism
  - c. colony
  - d. CORRECT: veld

12. the attitude that people of a different race/colour are inferior to those of one's own race/colour
  - a. Africans
  - b. colony
  - c. Boers
  - d. CORRECT: racism

13. a term used to describe white South Africans who speak Afrikaans, especially those descended from Europeans who migrated to southern Africa before the nineteenth century
  - a. Boers
  - b. CORRECT: Afrikaners
  - c. Africans
  - d. Uitlanders

14. land settled and ruled by a foreign power, which exploits the colony's people and resources while maintaining a distinction between the ruling nation and the colonial people whom it views as inferior
  - a. veld
  - b. Boers
  - c. CORRECT: colony
  - d. racism